

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 126 January 31, 1987

REORGANIZING THE MINISTRY OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

RECALLING that the reorganization of the government is mandated expressly in Article II, Section I (a), and Article III of the Freedom Constitution;

HAVING IN MIND that pursuant to Executive Order No. 5 (1986), it is directed that necessary and proper changes in the organizational and functional structures of the government, its agencies and instrumentalities, be effected in order to promote efficiency and effectiveness in the delivery of public services;

CONSIDERING that it has become necessary to introduce critical structural and functional changes in the Ministry of Labor and Employment to make it more responsive to the urgent demands of national economic recovery;

BELIEVING that the same Ministry has to streamline its operations by rationalizing its functions, structure and organization to make it more efficient and effective in undertaking its principal mission of translating the declared policy of the state on labor into meaningful program on employment promotion, manpower development and utilization, advancement of workers' welfare, provision for a decent living wage and other just and humane conditions of work and promotion of sound and stable industrial harmony as essential components of national economic recovery and developments;

RECOGNIZING that women and rural workers have a vital role in nation-building, the same Ministry has to create, promote and develop the conditions for their full utilization, including their protection and welfare.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CORAZON C. AQUINO, by the powers vested in me by the sovereign will of the Filipino People and the Freedom Constitution, do hereby order:

Sec. 1. Title. This Executive Order shall otherwise be known as the Reorganization Act of the Ministry of Labor and Employment.

Sec. 2. Reorganization. The Ministry of Labor and Employment, hereinafter referred to as Ministry, is hereby reorganized, structurally and functionally in accordance with the provisions of this Executive Order.

Sec. 3. Declaration of Policy. It is the declared policy of the State to afford protection to labor, promote full employment, ensure equal work opportunities regardless of sex, race, or creed, and regulate the relations between workers and employers. The State shall assure the rights of the workers to self-organization, collective bargaining, security of tenure, and just and human conditions of work.

Sec. 4. Mandate and Objectives. The Ministry shall be the primary policy, programming, coordinating and administrative entity of the Executive Branch of the government in the field of labor and employment. It shall assume primary responsibility for:

(a) The promotion of gainful employment opportunities and the optimization of the development and utilization of the country's manpower resources;

(b) The advancement of workers' welfare by providing for just and humane working conditions and terms of employment;

(c) The maintenance of industrial peace by promoting harmonious, equitable, and stable employment relations that assure equal protection for the rights of all concerned parties.

Sec. 5. Powers and Functions. In pursuit of its mandate, the Ministry shall have the following powers and functions:

- (a) Formulate and recommend policies, plans and programs for manpower development, training, allocation, and utilization;
- (b) Protect and promote the interest of every citizen desiring to work locally or overseas by securing for him the most equitable terms and conditions of employment, and by providing social and welfare services;
- (c) Regulate the employment of aliens, including the establishment of a registration and/or work permit system for such aliens;
- (d) Formulate general guidelines concerning wage and income policy;
- (e) Recommend necessary adjustments in wage structures with a view to developing a wage system that is consistent with national economic and social development plans;
- (f) Provide for safe, decent, humane and improved working conditions and environment for all workers, particularly women and young workers;
- (g) Maintain harmonious, equitable and stable labor relations system that is supportive of the national economic policies and programs;
- (h) Uphold the right of workers and employers to organize and to promote free collective bargaining as the foundation of the labor relations system;
- (i) Provide and ensure the fair and expeditious settlement and disposition of labor and industrial disputes through collective bargaining, grievance machinery, conciliation, mediation, voluntary arbitration, compulsory arbitration as may be provided by law, and other modes that may be voluntarily agreed upon by the parties concerned.

Sec. 6. Minister of Labor and Employment. The authority and responsibility for the exercise of the mandate of the Ministry and for the discharge of its powers and functions shall be vested in the Minister of Labor and Employment, hereinafter referred to as the Minister, and who shall have supervision and control over the Ministry. For such purposes, the Minister shall have the following powers and functions:

- (a) Advise the President on the promulgation of executive/administrative orders, other regulative issuances and legislative proposals on matters pertaining to labor and employment;
- (b) Formulate policies, guidelines, rules and regulations and other issuances necessary to carry out Ministry policies, plans, programs and projects;
- (c) Issue orders, directives, rules and regulations and other issuances to carry out labor and employment policies, plans, programs and projects;
- (d) Provide overall direction, supervision, and control over all offices under the Ministry to ensure effective and efficient implementation of its policies, plans, programs and projects;
- (e) Coordinate with other government offices, labor, organizations, employers associations, and any other group to carry out the mandate of the Ministry;
- (f) Evaluate the policy, plans, programs and project accomplishment of the Ministry;
- (g) Prepare reports for the President and for the public;
- (h) Delegate authority for the performance of any function to officers and employees of the Ministry;
- (i) Exercise such other powers and functions as may be provided by law or assigned by the President.

Sec. 7. Office of the Minister. The Office of the Minister shall consist of the Minister and his immediate staff.

Sec. 8. Deputy Minister. The Minister shall be assisted by not more than four (4) Deputy Ministers who shall be appointed by the President upon the recommendation of the Minister. The Minister is hereby authorized to delineate and assign the respective functional areas of responsibility of the Deputy Ministers, provided, that such responsibility shall be with respect to the mandate and objectives of the Ministry; and provided, further, that no Deputy Minister shall be assigned primarily administrative responsibilities. Within his functional area of responsibility, a Deputy Minister shall have the following functions:

- (a) Advise and assist the Minister in the formulation and implementation of the Ministry's policies, plans, programs and projects;
- (b) Oversee the operational activities of the Ministry;
- (c) Coordinate the programs and projects of the Ministry for efficient and effective administration;

Upon approval of this Executive Order, the officers and employees of the Ministry shall in a hold over capacity, continue to perform their respective duties and responsibilities and receive the corresponding salaries and benefits unless in the meantime they are separated from government service pursuant to Executive Order No. 17 (1986) or Article III of the Freedom Constitution.

The new position structure and staffing pattern of the Ministry shall be approved and prescribed by the Minister for the Ministry within one hundred twenty (120) days from the approval of this Executive Order and the authorized positions created thereunder shall be filled with regular appointments by him or by the President as the case may be. Those incumbents whose positions are not included therein or who are not reappointed shall be deemed separated from the service. Those separated from the service shall receive the retirement benefits to which they may be entitled under existing laws, rules and regulations. Otherwise, they shall be paid the equivalent of one-month basic salary for every year of service, or the equivalent nearest fraction thereof favorable to them on the basis of the highest salary received, but in no case shall such payment exceed the equivalent of 12 months salary.

No court or administrative body shall issue any writ or preliminary injunctions or restraining order to enjoin the separation/replacement of any officer or employee affected under this Executive Order.

Sec. 26. Prohibition Against Reorganizational Change. No change in the reorganization herein prescribed shall be valid except upon prior approval of the President for the purpose of promoting efficiency and effectiveness in the delivery of public services.

Sec. 27. Funding. Funds needed to carry out the provisions of this Executive Order shall be taken from funds available in the Ministry.

Sec. 28. Implementing Authority of Minister. The Minister shall issue such rules, regulations and other issuances as may be necessary to ensure the effective implementation of the provisions of this Executive Order.

Sec. 29. Transitory Provisions. In the abolition/transfer of entity/functions as prescribed in the Executive Order, the following rules shall be provided:

(a) Any transfer of entities shall include the functions, appropriations, funds, records, equipment, facilities, other properties, assets, and liabilities and of the transferred entity as well as the personnel thereof as may be necessary, who shall, in a hold over capacity, continue to perform their respective duties and responsibilities and receive the corresponding salaries and benefits unless in the meantime they are separated from government service pursuant to Executive Order No. 17 (1986) or Article III of the Freedom Constitution. Those personnel from the transferred entity whose positions are not included in the new position structure and staffing pattern approved by the Minister or who are not reappointed shall be entitled to the benefits provided in the second paragraph of Section 25 hereof.

(b) Any transfer of functions which results in the abolition of the entity that has exercised such transferred functions shall include as may be necessary, to the proper discharge of the transferred functions, the appropriations, funds, records, equipment, facilities, other assets, and personnel of the entity from which such functions have been transferred. The remaining appropriations and funds shall revert to the General Fund and the remaining records, equipment, facilities and other assets shall be allocated to such appropriate units as the Minister shall determine or otherwise shall be disposed of, in accordance with the Auditing Code and other pertinent laws, rules and regulations. The liabilities, if any, of the abolished entity shall be treated likewise in accordance with the Auditing Code and other pertinent laws, rules and regulations. Incumbents of the abolished entity shall, in a hold over capacity continue to perform their respective duties and responsibilities and receive the corresponding salaries and benefits unless in the meantime they are separated from government service pursuant to Executive Order No. 17 (1986) or Article III of the Freedom Constitution. Any such personnel whose position is not included in the new position structure and staffing pattern approved by the Minister or who is not reappointed shall be entitled to the benefits provided in the second paragraph of Section 25 hereof.

(c) Any transfer of functions which does not result in the abolition of the entity that has exercised such transferred functions shall include the appropriations, funds, records, equipment, facilities, other assets as well as the personnel of the entity from which such functions have been transferred that are necessary to the proper discharge of such transferred functions. The liabilities, if any, which have been incurred in connection with the discharge of the transferred functions shall be allocated in accordance with the Auditing Code and the pertinent laws, rules and regulations. Such personnel shall, in a hold over capacity, continue to perform their respective duties and responsibilities and receive the corresponding salaries and benefits unless in the meantime they are separated from government service pursuant to Executive Order No. 17 (1986) or Article III of the Freedom Constitution. Any such personnel whose position is not included in the new position structure and staffing pattern approved by the Minister or who is not reappointed shall be entitled to the benefits provided in the second paragraph of Section 25 hereof.

(d) In case of the abolition of an entity which does not result in the transfer of its functions to another entity, the appropriations and funds of the abolished entity shall revert to the General Fund, while the records, equipment, facilities and other assets thereof shall be allocated to such appropriate units as the Minister shall determine or otherwise shall be disposed of in accordance with the Auditing Code and other pertinent laws, rules and regulations. The liabilities, if any, of the abolished entity shall be treated in accordance with the Auditing Code and other pertinent laws, while the personnel thereof shall be entitled to the benefits provided in the second paragraph of Section 25 hereof.

Sec. 30. Change of Nomenclatures. In the event of the adoption of a new Constitution which provides for a presidential form of government, the Ministry shall be called Department of Labor and Employment and the titles of Minister, Deputy Minister, and Assistant Minister shall be changed to Secretary, Under Secretary, and Assistant Secretary, respectively.

Sec. 31. Notice or Consent Requirement. If any reorganizational change herein authorized is of such substance or materiality as to prejudice third persons with rights recognized by law or contract such that notice to or consent of creditors is required to be made or obtained pursuant to any agreement entered into with any of such creditors, such notice or consent requirement shall be complied with prior to the implementation of such reorganizational change.

Sec. 32. Separability Clause. Any portion or provision of this Executive Order that may be declared unconstitutional shall not have the effect of nullifying other portions or provisions hereof as long as such remaining portions can still subsist and be given effect in their entirety.

Sec. 33. Repealing Clause. All laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, other issuances or parts thereof, which are inconsistent with this Executive Order, are hereby repealed or modified accordingly.

Sec. 34. Effectivity. This Executive Order shall take effect immediately upon its approval.

APPROVED in the City of Manila, Philippines, this 31th day of January, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and eighty-seven.
